AWARD OF EXCELLENCE - BEST PRACTICE INTERNATIONAL FAMILY LAW 2023/2024

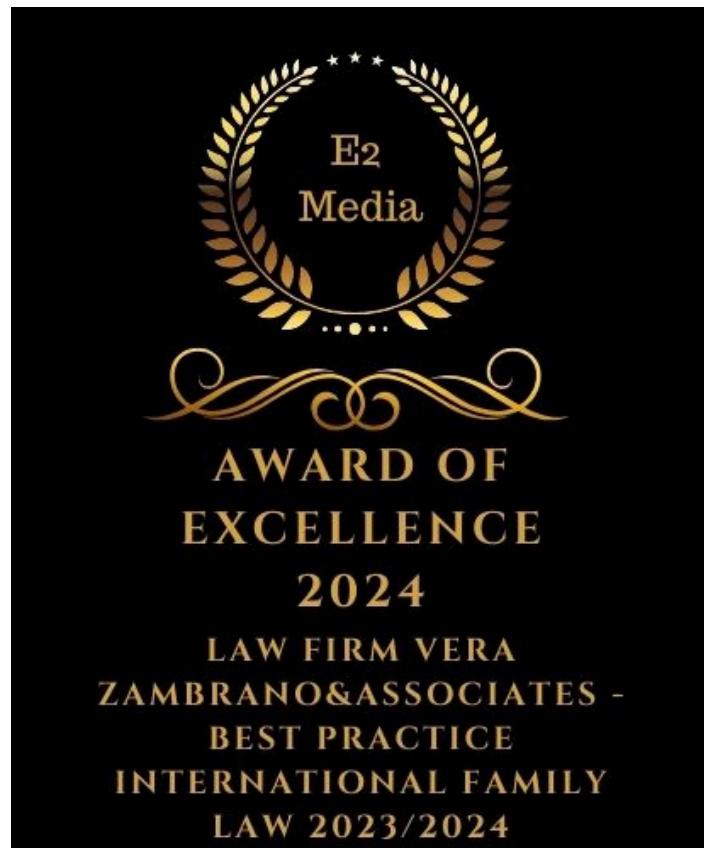

Nominated by clients and chosen for this accolade, Award of Excellence - Best Practice in International Family Law 2023/2024 by E2 Media, selected by a panel of inhouse experts and judges is based on nominations and ratings from our clients, the variety in international cases and highlights our dedication to providing exceptional services in international - here family - law. Our clients' trust and positive feedback played a significant role in this achievement, and we're grateful for their support.

Significant cases included e.g. the success of return in international child abduction cases, international criminal deportation cases between US and Europe, international relocation cases of minor children between the US and Germany, the overturn of international custody cases, international adoption cases and many more...in various other international matters. The award recognizes our firm's performance for our clients, our customer service 24/7 and expertise, and commitment to client service and professional excellence. In the coming month, we'll also be featured in a onepage interview in the awarding body's online magazine, where you can read more about our approach and values.

"We're committed to continuing to serve you with dedication and expertise. Thank you for being part of this journey with us!"
